

PAPERSPAST

Papers Past Home Introduction Search Browse

Papers Past > Wanganui Herald > 8 February 1892 > Page 1 > Page 1 Advertisements Column 4

Page 1 Advertisements Column 4

Wanganui Herald, Volume XXVI, Issue 7638, 8 February 1892, Page 1

About this newspaper

View computer-generated text

Back to issue contents

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—That very compact and desirable Farm on No. 2 Line, known as "Fir Grove," the property of Mr John Wallace, containing 257 acres, well-grassed and sub-divided, five miles from town, good eight-roomed house, garden, orchard, concrete dip, and every possible convenience. Title—Crown Grant. Two-thirds purchase money can remain on mortgage at 6 per cent. For further particulars apply to

JOHN WALLACE, No. 2 Line,
Or ALBERT BARNS, Auctioneer.

TO LET—The premises on Taupo Quay at present occupied by Mr William Kennedy as a Wood and Coal Yard. Apply Sash and Door Company.

FOR SALE—10-roomed House with ¼-acre Land in Wilson Street. House and grounds in good order. Apply G. Culman, Avenue.

New Goods.

R. HANNAH & CO.

HAVE just opened up their Stock of SUMMER GOODS, comprising all the LATEST STYLES in Ladies', Gent's, and Children's Boots and Shoes.

Ladies' Glaze Kid Oxford Shoes, imitation toe caps
Ladies' Glaze Kid Derby Shoes
Ladies' Glaze Kid Oxford Shoes, patent

John Alexander McKane WALLACE
(father of Joseph Wallace and gd-father of Sarah Esther Wallace, wife of George Major,
parents of Elliott
McKane Major)